Re: United States v. Michael McMahon
Docket No.: 1:21-cr-00265-PKC

Dear Judge Chen:

I am an attorney-at-law of the States of New York and New Jersey and am writing this letter on behalf of Michael McMahon to ask Your Honor for leniency in his sentencing. I have known Mr. McMahon for well over 15 years. Mr. McMahon, as you know, is a retired New York City detective and I retained him to assist me in a large number of matters over the years. These matters included civil and criminal cases. Mr. McMahon performed private investigative type duties, including interviewing witnesses and obtaining records.

Mr. McMahon's work ethic and professionalism was excellent and above reproach. I never had any reason to believe that he did anything inappropriate for me or my clients. I can say that I never had any concern about his integrity and I have never heard from a single witness that he interviewed anything other than that he was a total professional. I consider him to be a friend.

I was heartbroken to learn of the jury verdict in this case. I ask Your Honor to consider my experience with Mr. McMahon in terms of determining your sentence in this case.

Respectfully submitted,
